

To mark the anniversary year, Tourismus-Marketing Brandenburg GmbH are offering two group-based packages and Potsdam Tourismus Service have devised a guided tour on foot specially on the theme of Frederick. English-speaking group bookings can also be made at the "Brandenburg Group Travel Office":

- Group Package Excursion (4 days): "Frederick – Berlin and his Potsdam" is designed to show the visitor Potsdam and Berlin, in this case the Castle of Schönhausen and the city centre. The remaining days will be dedicated to exploring Potsdam and its environment, for instance, a round trip touring the castles on the Havel. In Potsdam itself potatoes will be laid on Friedrich's grave and visitors will be taken on guided tours of the Neues Palais and the park. On the final day there will be an opportunity to visit the 'Friedrichsiko' Exhibition or (for June visitors) to experience the Potsdam Music Festival or to view the Frederick and the Potato Exhibition at the House of Brandenburg-Prussian History. Cost: from 175 Euros per person in double room.
- Group Package: Excursion (5 days): "Frederick300 – A King at Home" – a round trip furnishing impressions not only of the State of Brandenburg with stops in Neuruppin, Rheinsberg and Zernikow, but also the State Capital of Potsdam and incorporating a city tour, a visit to the Park of Sanssouci and the special exhibition in the Neues Palais focusing on interesting aspects from the life of the great Prussian king. Includes a visit to Berlin. Cost from 405 Euros per person in double room.
- Group Package: Guided Tour of Potsdam on foot (2hrs): "On the Trail of Frederick". This takes visitors from Castle Sanssouci through the New Chambers and on through the Park of Sanssouci, terminating at the Chinese Tea House. Price for groups of up to 30 persons: 95 Euros.
